M'Cheyne's Bible Reading Plan

Each year I adopt some plan for my daily devotional reading of Scripture. To be honest, I try to vary this a little each year to keep it fresh. I have enjoyed this plan that Robert Murray M'Cheyne developed for the people that he pastored.

It is helpful for several reasons:

- It leads you through the Old Testament once and the New Testament and Psalms twice during the year.
- It gives a variety of Scripture passages to read each day - historical, prophetical, and devotional.
- It divides the readings into readings for the morning and for the evening.
- It promotes a reading for private devotions and one for family devotions.
- It encourages the church family to read through the Bible together.

M'Cheyne's heart was to strengthen families and the church family while deepening the personal devotion of each Christian. I can tell you from personal experience, that it has been a delight to follow.

We have decided to make M'Cheyne's plan available through Enjoying the Journey this year, with the prayer that God will use it to lead all of us to a life full of the Word in the days ahead.

There is something better than living to be old: it is a life that continues to live and affects other lives. If you want to live "a full life" then fill it with the Word of God and the God of the Word. It will be sure to overflow with blessings for you and many others.

"And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever" (1 John 2:17).
