

10 Characteristics of Spiritual Leadership

Good leadership is both spiritual and practical. Nehemiah was a spiritual leader. As you study the life of Nehemiah in God's Word, you discover several characteristics for spiritual leadership. Consider these 10 characteristics modeled by Nehemiah:

1. He was a man of compassion.

"...he sat down and wept" (1:4).

2. He was a man of prayer.

"I beseech thee, O Lord God of heaven" (1:5).

3. He was a man of vision.

He saw the work of God that had to be accomplished (2:12-18).

4. He was a man of faith.

"The God of heaven, he will prosper us" (2:20).

5. He was a man of organization.

He organized an entire nation into families and 42 different work groups.

6. He was a man of hard work.

"So built we the wall" (4:6). He did not merely tell others to do it; he got his hands dirty. He led by example.

7. He was a man of vigilance.

He set a watch against the enemies day and night (4:9).

8. He was a man of courage.

He instructed the people, "Be not afraid of them" (4:14).

9. He was a man of rebuke.

He was willing to rebuke even the nobles and the rulers among the people (5:7).

10. He was a man of determination.

"I cannot come to him" (6:3). He refused to be distracted from his duty.
