

Connecting your Gifts to the Gospel

One of the most important things a person can discover is why God made them. All of God's children have been given spiritual gifts, and we should be connecting our gifts to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ.

1. Every man has his own assignment from the Master.

"As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen." -- 1 Peter 4:10-11

2. Every man must discover and do what God left him here to do.

"And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it." -- Colossians 4:17

3. Every man's work is connected to the larger work of Christ.

"For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch." -- Mark 13:34

4. Every man will answer to the Lord for how he used his gifts.

"So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God."
-- Romans 14:12

5. Every man has his time...and it will not last forever.

"But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God."
--Acts 20:24
